New York, March 2-Jack Johnson and his manager, Sam Fitzpatrick, on their way to this country from Australia, have arrived in Honolulu on the steamship Makura. Johnson gave an exhibition there to-day, and will leave to-morrow for Vancouver, from which place he w.l go direct to Chicago, then to his home in Galveston. Later he will come to this city and sail for London.

The big negro says he stands ready to meet any man in the world for a purse and a $5,000 side bet, Jeffries preferred. He will begin training on May 1 for his twenty-round bout with Langford at the National Sporting Club. On the other side there seems to be some anxiety over the fact that Langford is still in this country without a fight, when he can have a chance to pick up plenty of money in the English music halls.
